Mr Cashman

$37,500 2018 Magic Millions National Sales Weanling Purchase

We were hoping for a good result on debut with Mr Cashman on Saturday at Moonee Valley. He was a modestly priced weanling that had simply blossomed after we purchased him and grew him out at Ascot Farm. Patrick Payne has always had a good opinion of him and the way he put his opposition away on Saturday justified Patrick's judgement.

He will have an easy couple of weeks before being aimed at the Listed Talindert Stakes at Flemington on 15 February and then on to the VRC Sires Produce Stakes. Mr Cashman gives the impression he will be at his best at 1600m once he matures. He is one of several very exciting horses we have on our hands at present.

On Saturday Zizzis lines up in the Magic Millions Rising Star which is the final race on the card at the Gold Coast. She travelled up to Queensland without any issues with Bill Egan opting to travel to the Coast to ride her on Saturday. I'd love 20ml of rain but even without that she is a good each way chance.

Rubisaki returns to the track on 11 January at Flemington. She is in great shape with this being her final run as we head towards the $1million Inglis Sprint on 8 February at Warwick Farm.

Our other runner on Saturday is Sali's Sister at Launceston. She wasn't given much hope on her return to the track. We have a change of pilot with Craig Newitt taking the ride.
